

GPS will update based on news, with aspects such as weather and heavy traffic

GPS will allow you to download your routes beforehand so that if you enter an area with no wifi you will not get lost, meaning you will have access to your directions the whole time.

GPS will recommend alternate destinations based on weather, traffic congestion, and closing/opening times